

Robin Hood Theatre New Writing Script Submission 2020

This submission window is open for the whole year. Writers are invited to submit one original script of a full-length stage play that has not been performed before. Scripts will initially be considered by our play reading group. If an overall winner is selected by the board, it will be included in our 2021-22 season for a three night run on the main stage in our 'New Work' slot, dates to be confirmed.

Entry requirements:

1. Entry is free, by email only. In the subject line put: 'Play Title by Your Name' eg: This House by James Graham. Include your name, DOB, address and telephone number in the email message. We do not require a synopsis or author biography. Attach a PDF of the play, named as the play title, which must not include any author details, and send to rhtcsecretary@live.co.uk . We will reply to your email to confirm receipt. This could take a few days.
2. The play must be at least 100 minutes long, using a minimum of four actors.
3. The play must be an original work for the theatre, solely by the author, that has not been performed on stage, apart from rehearsed readings.
4. We cannot accept proposals, early drafts, adaptations or multiple entries.
5. We are not able to consider screen plays or musicals.
6. There is no specific theme or subject to write to.
7. If your play is selected for the 'New Work' performance, we would like you to have some involvement with the director in its development and in the rehearsal process. We regret we are not able to pay for travel or other costs.
8. We do not offer a royalty payment if your play is performed and will not retain any rights afterwards. Some images and promotional material will remain on our website. There is no cash prize or cash alternative.
9. Writers will be notified of the outcome of this script submission by email by the end of April 2021. We regret that we are not able to offer any feedback on unsuccessful entries.

We look forward to receiving your scripts and wish you the very best of luck.
